May President's Message

Friends,

I hope you had an enjoyable Passover. Mine was very nice with family gathered around the seder table both nights. Our services were also enjoyable, with participation by members of Temple Beth Am and Ohel Avraham. We had many lively Torah discussions during the week.

There are interesting events to look forward to in May. On May 1st at 7:30 PM we will have the return of the duo of Remy Yulzari and Nadav Lev. Remy plays the bass and Nadav the guitar and they play an exciting mix of Latin and Sephardi music. They did a concert at BHBI last year and we're excited to have them back. The concert on the 1st will be free (donations accepted) and will be followed by a dessert reception.

Remy and Nadav will do a second concert on May 4th at the JCC at 4:00 PM. This concert is part of our ongoing Jewish-Muslim dialogue series and they will be joined by the Sufi Ensemble of Ithaca in a concert of Turkish and Jewish music. This concert is also free and will be followed by dessert. As part of the dialogue series it is sponsored by the Farash Foundation, Temple Beth David, Temple Beth Am, and the Turkish Cultural Center. Both concerts are also supported by a generous grant from a local musician, Dr. Bruce Goldman. Please join us for both concerts.

The JCC concert will be preceded at 3:30 by a siyyum. Aaron Marsh and I will be concluding our study of Talmud tractate Megillah. This will be followed by a small talk about the tractate, and then the concert. Megillah has lots of interesting things in it, not just laws of Purim, please join us for that.

Sunday May 18th will be our Annual Membership Meeting at 3 PM. Please come to show support for our newly elected Board members and to participate in the discussions. There should be some interesting topics to discuss at this meeting.

Finally, on Saturday May 24th there will be a special Kiddush after services, sponsored by the grandchildren of Rebbitzin Esther Solomon, in her memory. Many of us loved Mrs. Solomon and it is wonderful to see her honored. Please join us to celebrate her role in our shul.

Enjoy the spring.
