March President's Message

Friends,

Have you heard the story about the synagogue that was invaded by squirrels? The congregation tried in vain to get rid of them until finally finding a way. The solution? Give the squirrels a bar mitzvah and they would never come back. Well, earlier this winter when the weather turned colder we had a squirrel move into our building. We hired a professional who trapped him successfully, so I'm sorry to say you will not get an invitation to the bar mitzvah.

After a relatively quiet month, we are entering the busy part of the spring. March starts with Purim on the 4th, with a joint service with Temple Beth Am and Temple Beth David at BHBI. Please join us for a fun service, and costumes are welcome. We will be sending mishloach manot to our members again this year, along with Temple Beth Am. I want to thank the many volunteers, headed by Andrea Paprocki and assisted by Laurel Schneiderman for putting this together.

On the 13th will be Shabbat Across America with the dinner being held at Beth Am. Get your reservations in soon.

On the 15th our friends Rémy Yulzari and Nadav Lev will be back for another concert at the JCC. See the insert in this bulletin for details. This will be the third year in a row that we are hosting them. They are almost honorary members. Please tell all your friends. We'd like to have a great turnout.

The final event of the month will be another interfaith dialogue with the members of the Turkish Cultural Center. This event will be at BHBI on Sunday the 29th. The topic will be Perspectives on Violence. This is a very timely topic. I'm sure it will be a fascinating discussion. Please join us.

Three of the four Shabbat services during March will have special Torah readings as we prepare for Pesach, which will start with the first weekend in April. Don't forget to sell your chametz. We will offer a full schedule of Pesach services, again jointly with Temple Beth Am and Temple Beth David.

I'm looking forward to seeing you at all our events. Spring is here spiritually, if not physically.

Leon Metlay

Do you want to sell your chametz before Passover?
BHBI makes it easy for you to do so. Just fill out the Sale of Chametz form on page 4 and send in your form with a donation to BHBI to be received by Thursday, March 26th.

Our next United by Faith Jewish-Muslim Interfaith Event will focus on 'The Perspectives of our Traditions on the Use of Violence' and will take place at BHBI on Sunday afternoon, March 29th at 2:00 p.m. Everyone is invited. Bring your friends!
