January President's Message

Friends,

Our Chanukah party this year was a great success. With over 55 people attending, it was one of our biggest BHBI events of the last few years. The food was great, the singing was rousing, and the games kept both young and old in good cheer! Our many thanks go to the party committee (Janet Grable, Leon Metlay, along with myself) that shopped, cooked, and set up the delightful Maca“Bee” party theme. Thanks also to the emcees who ran the “Bee”ngo, Spelling “Bee”, and “Buzz” Word games (Dave Rogachefsky, Art Mercer and myself). The chop-stick dreidel race kept the kids busy, but I think more practice with those chop-sticks will be needed for next time! Thanks also to those who helped serve and clean up (Stan Schaffer, Ruth Teitel, Aline Honickman, Judith Mercer), and to Dave Benjamin who helped prepare many of the games. My apologies if I have left anyone out of my list – the night was busy and so many lent a hand to help. Pictures from the party are posted on the “Pics” page of our shul website.

As we start our new calendar year, our Shabbat Morning Service starts reading a new book of the Torah – Exodus, the story of our slavery in Egypt, and our departure at the hands of our greatest prophet Moses. For those of you who have not been to Shabbat service recently, I invite you to come and listen. We will be sticking with Moses and his adventures all the way through to next Simchat Torah, and not all the good parts were in the movie!

For those who enjoyed it, I give the recipe for our Chanukah Lentil Soup below.

See you in shul,

Steve Teitel

Chanukah Red Lentil Soup – adapted from The World of Jewish Cooking by Gil Marks:

Makes 6 to 8 servings

3 Tbs vegetable or olive oil

2 medium yellow onions, chopped

2 to 3 cloves garlic, minced

2 cups red lentils, rinsed and drained

3 medium carrots, chopped

2 stalks celery, diced

about 8 cups water, perhaps less if you like your soup thick (you can always add more water later)

1 bay leaf

fresh chopped flat leaf parsley or cilantro or both, ½ cup or more to taste

salt, about 2 tsp or to taste

fresh ground pepper to taste

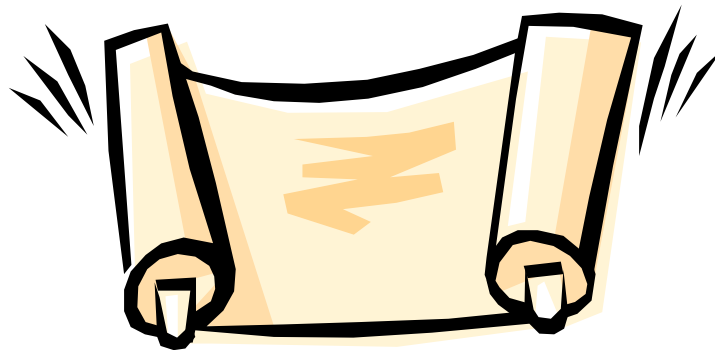

¾ cup or so of some small shape pasta, I like ditalini, but elbows will also do

Heat the oil in large pot on medium heat. Add the onions and garlic and sauté until soft, 5 to 10 minutes. Add the lentils, carrots, celery, water, and bay leaf. Bring to boil and then reduce heat to low and simmer until lentils are done, about 30 minutes. Add parsley and/or cilantro, salt and pepper, and pasta. Continue to simmer until pasta is done. Be sure to use red (and not the more common brown) lentils, as these cook more quickly and dissolve to give a nice thick soup. The cilantro has a nice distinctive taste, so give it a try!

PLEASE VISIT OR CALL OUR ELDERLY MEMBERS!

Many of our elderly members are no longer able to come to shul and would love to hear from their BHBI friends. Please call or visit them. They'd love to hear from you!

NEWS FROM ISRAEL

Excerpted from the Jerusalem Post

Uncovered Ruins Thought to Be Palace of Queen Helena

Israeli archeologists have uncovered a monumental Second Temple structure opposite the Temple Mount that was likely Queen Helena's palace. The site was uncovered just outside the old city's Dung Gate as preparations were being made to expand the Western Wall parking lot. The site indicates that the City of David was much larger than previously thought. The palace, which was dated to the end of the Second Temple period was destroyed by the Romans with their conquest of Jerusalem. Queen Helena was a wealthy Babylonian aristocrat who converted to Judaism and moved to Jerusalem with her sons. According to the first-century historian, Josephus, she was known for her generosity to the poor and for building lavish buildings in the City of David. The unearthed palace includes massive foundation walls, halls that are 2 stories high, a basement that was covered with vaults, and remains of frescoes, water installations and ritual baths. Below it are remains from the early Hellenistic period and artifacts from the time of the First Temple.

40 Iranian Jews Make Aliya

The largest-ever single group of Iranian immigrants arrived in Israel on December 25th. Many Iranian Jews left Iran in a steady stream after the fall of the shah in 1979. Before the Islamic Revolution in Iran in that year, 125,000 Jews lived there. Currently, 25,000 remain in Iran. Most of those who left resettled in the U.S. (mostly in the Los Angeles area) and a small percentage went to Israel. Prior to the arrival of the latest group, 200 Iranian Jews had resettled in Israel this year.

Israeli-Authored Resolution Approved at the UN

For the first time in history, a non-political Israeli-authored resolution was adopted by the UN. The resolution, which calls on member states to work with UN organizations to promote the development and transfer of agricultural technologies to developing countries was passed by the UN's Economics and Finance Committee by a vote of 118 in favor, 29 abstentions, and no opposing votes.

Lance Armstrong to Cycle in Israel in Honor of the Nation's 60th Anniversary

Seven-time Tour de France winner, Lance Armstrong, has accepted an invitation to participate in the inauguration of a bike trail between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv as part of Israel's 60th anniversary celebrations.

77 Year Old Soldier Honored

Septuagenarian Lt. Col. Ze'ev Ram was awarded the Israeli Army's 2nd Lebanon War military ribbon on December 18th. Ram, a survivor of the concentration camps in Europe, came to Israel at age 17 a few months before the establishment of the state in 1948. He served in Israel's War of Independence and in every one of Israel's wars ever since. He continues to do reserve duty and was called up to service in the 2006 Lebanon War. When asked when he will stop doing reserve duty, he replied, "Never, unless my legs stop working or they kick me out."

Controversy in Israel About Arms Smuggling Video

The Jerusalem Post recently revealed that Israel transferred videos to Washington documenting Egyptian soldiers assisting Hamas in smuggling weapons and explosives from Sinai to the Gaza Strip. The videos were to be shown to members of Congress who are currently re-evaluating how much money the U.S. should be giving Egypt in military and civilian aid. However, the Israeli Foreign Ministry has prevented the Israeli Embassy in Washington from showing the tapes to members of Congress in order to avoid a major diplomatic rift with Egypt. This action by the Foreign Ministry has resulted in considerable controversy in Israeli political circles with Foreign Minister Livni needing to defend her actions before the Knesset.
