September President's Message

Friends,

Well summer is almost over (oh no!), but to give it a last hurrah we will celebrate on September 5th with our new tradition (started last year) of an annual Friday evening barbecue dinner. This year the theme is an Israeli-style picnic, complete with shashlik (grilled turkey kabob), cucumber and tomato salad, mujadarah (rice and lentil pilaf), and other tasty treats! You won't want to miss it! Socializing starts at 5:30 pm, with dinner at 6:00 pm, followed by Shabbat evening services at about 7:30 pm. Dessert will follow services. Be sure to call in your reservations to BHBI at 244-2060 no later than September 2nd!

The barbecue is also our Open House event for prospective new members. So please tell all your unaffiliated friends, or anyone you know who is shul shopping, to come by and experience the warmth of our BHBI hospitality! Dinner is free for all perspective new members, but reservations must be made in advance. This year we are also offering a complimentary 3-month trial membership, including High Holy Day tickets, to all prospective first time members (past members and those who have regularly bought holiday tickets from BHBI are not eligible). So please help spread the word!

The ending of summer also ushers in our High Holy Day season. We start with a joint Selichot observance with our friends from Temple Beth David and Temple Beth Am at the JCC on Saturday evening, September 20th. The evening's events will begin with a movie (Paper Clips) and discussion at 8:30 pm, followed by dessert and then the Selichot service starting at approximately 10:30 pm. Just over a week later, Rosh Hashanah begins with evening services at BHBI on Monday evening, September 29th at 6:30 pm followed by services the next morning at 9:00 am. We are happy to once again have Dr. George Kornfeld leading our High Holy Day Services. The full schedule of our holiday services is given later in this bulletin. As you reflect this holiday season on your deeds of the past year and on your goals and hopes for the future, I ask you to reflect also on our congregation and the role it plays in your personal and in our community life. Please be generous when you consider our annual High Holy Day Appeal, and let us all work to strengthen BHBI.

I wish you and your loved ones a good and sweet New Year!

L' Shanah Tovah v'Metukah,

Steve Teitel

L'Shana Tova
