November President's Message

Friends,

Our holiday season has now at last concluded. I would like to thank Dr. George Kornfeld for once again leading our High Holiday services, and to Harris Honickman and Leon Metlay of our ritual committee for their great job organizing it all. Thanks also to all who participated on the bimah or with readings. Our lovely new holiday bimah cover, generously donated by Joe Yudelson in memory of his late wife Tanya, zichronah l'brachah, enhanced the beauty of our services. Thanks to the Honickman family for once again sponsoring the break-fast at the shul at the conclusion of Yom Kippur. Many thanks to Janet Grable for the wonderful kiddushim she sponsored and prepared from Sukkot through Simchat Torah. I don't think there is a better fed congregation in town!

Our special Sukkot dinner in honor of our caretaker Lual was a great success. Over 30 people turned out to wish Lual a safe and joyful journey as he makes his first return visit to the Sudan to see his family, from whom he has been separated for many years. I would like to express my very sincere appreciation to all those who came to the dinner and all those who made contributions. The proceeds from this event amounted to a nice bonus that we presented to Lual to assist him with the expenses of his trip. I would also like to thank Judith Mercer and Emily Fishman for helping out in the kitchen, and Aline Honickman for help setting up. Lual will depart on his trip October 29. During Lual's three month absence his duties will be taken up by his friend William, also from the Sudan. Please stop by to say hello and introduce yourself to William.

Although the holidays have now passed, our special three-month free membership offer, for prospective first time new members, continues! Please tell anyone you know who is unaffiliated, or who is shul shopping, about this great opportunity to see what BHBI has to offer. Our warm, member-led, Shabbat services allow for a level of participation and engagement that one just will not find in larger congregations.

I wish to bring your attention to a new BHBI tradition that has begun over the last few months. On the third Friday of each month we now hold Shabbat evening services at Heather Heights, an assisted living community in Pittsford located at 160 W. Jefferson Road between Clover and Main Streets. Heather Heights is the home of long time BHBI members Ben and Muriel Hobel. Ben and Muriel, and the many other Jewish residents, greatly appreciate being able to attend our traditional Shabbat services, and we have had a nice minyan each time. Services at Heather Heights begin at 7 pm, so please come on out!

As this bulletin reaches you, we are right in the middle of the annual Rochester Jewish Book Festival. Please check out the RJBF website at <http://www.rjbf.org> for a schedule of the events and support the festival!

See you in shul,

Steve Teitel
