Congregation Beth Hamedresh – Beth Israel

BULLETIN

Editor: Stan Schaffer

November Vice-President's Message

Friends,

As Vice-President, I am writing this letter to the congregation in place of our President Steve Teitel's usual message. Steve has had a very busy schedule at work this season, in addition to his responsibilities at shul. So I will be filling in for some of his usual tasks over the next couple of months.

We started October with the festival of Sukkot. Some of our services were held jointly with Temple Beth Am and Ohel Avraham. The sukkah had been erected just after Yom Kippur by members including Paula Bobb, Ira Cohen, Helen Gulack, Harris Honickman, Nina Klionsky, Leon Metlay, Stan Schaffer, and Esther Vogelstein. The kiddush lunches for Sukkot and Simchat Torah were prepared and sponsored by Janet Grable. We had good attendance at all of our services.

We took down the sukkah on Sunday 10/21. Thanks to Esther Vogelstein, Steve Teitel, Leon Metlay, Harris Honickman, and Ira Cohen who helped out.

Rabbi Simeon Kolko gave two interesting talks related to Jews and politics – titled “Shaping Our Future: Jews and the 2012 Election” during the Shabbaton on October 5 and 6. The delicious dinner on Friday was prepared by Steve Teitel, Esther Vogelstein, Judith Mercer, and Paula Bobb.

We concluded the holiday season with services for Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah held jointly with Temple Beth Am and Ohel Avraham.

I look forward to seeing you all at our Shabbat services during November and December.

Finally, I want to wish each and every one of you a happy Thanksgiving.

See you in shul,

Harris Honickman

Have a Happy Thanksgiving!
