March President's Message

Friends:

Our congregation lost another old friend last month. Paul Israel passed away at the Canandaigua VA hospital. Paul was very proud of being a veteran. He was married to his wife Rose for over 74 years, which, according to my calculations means they were married in 1942 or 1943. He would have been 19 or 20 years old. Afterwards, Paul became an insurance salesman. He was, in some ways, a stereotypic insurance salesman: loud, pushy and opinionated. I'm sure he sold a lot of insurance. Paul and Rose belonged to the old Beth Hamedresh Hagodel before it merged with Beth Israel. Paul put his various skills to work for our congregation over many years. My first memories of him are from the picnic of 1983, where he was selling raffle tickets. I later learned that every year he would round up the prizes, using his extensive contacts to convince merchants to donate substantial amounts of merchandise to be given away. BHBI was a focus of Paul's life. As an example, he and his wife donated 8 Shabbat prayer books and at least 11 High Holiday prayer books over the years. (I say at least because I have been going slowly through the book plates for several years recording who gave what. At this point I've recorded all the Shabbat books but not all the mahzors. When I'm done I plan to put the information on the web page). Paul was a fun person to be around. He liked to make a splash and he wasn't above laughing at himself. Starting in the 1990s he shifted more of his volunteer work to the Jewish War Veterans and we stopped seeing him as often. It was our loss. I and many others will miss him.

Enough sad news, this is now the month of Adar, the happy month! Purim is almost upon us. This year we are celebrating with three other congregations: Beth Am, Beth David, and Temple Emanu-El. We are also going to return to the tradition of a play, a Purim Spiel, which will be performed with scenes between the chapters of the megillah reading. This, I'm told, will be an adult-oriented satiric play, not the usual cute Hebrew school kids in costumes. I hope we will have cute kids in costumes, also cute adults in costumes. Please wear one. Bring your friends. We will be at Beth David's space in Room 200 of the B'rith Kodesh building. Go to Door A and follow the signs. I look forward to seeing you there.

If Purim is here, then Passover cannot be far behind. Plans are underway for Passover services. There will be a sale of Chametz form in next month's bulletin.

Have a great month.

Stay warm,

Leon Metlay

Have a Happy Purim!

Top Ten Reasons for Celebrating Purim by Kenneth Goldrich

1. Making noise in shul is a MITZVAH!!
2. Levity is not reserved for the Levites
3. Nobody knows if you're having a bad hair day. You can tell them it's your costume.
4. Purim is easier to spell than Chanukah, I mean Hanukah, I mean, Hanukkah, I mean Chanuka, I mean the Festival of Lights.
5. You don't have to kasher your home and change all the pots and dishes.
6. You don't have to build a hut and live and eat outside (but you could volunteer to build a new Purim booth for next year's Carnival)
7. You get to drink wine and drink wine and drink wine and you don't even have to stand for Kiddush (I guess you can't!)
8. You won't get hit in the eye by a lulav
9. You can't eat hamantaschen on Yom Kippur
10. Mordecai - 1; Haman - 0!!!!
