July's President's Message

Friends,

Thanks to everyone who came to, and helped with, the Shavuot dinner and services. Thank you to Paula Bobb and Judith Mercer who helped with the cooking, and thanks to Ami Schmerl and Esther Vogelstein for help cleaning up. And many thanks to Leon Metlay who led a most interesting Shavuot study discussion about Epicurus and the four Rabbis who went into the garden. I am going to stay out of the garden.

We are now in the thick of summer, and I hope you are all enjoying the weather (when it turns nice), and perhaps making some relaxing vacation plans. As people vanish at various times for vacation, it will become more challenging to gather a minyan for Shabbat, so I hope those of you in town will make an extra effort to come to services. If you have not been to Shabbat services for a while, why not give it a try? We would love to see you!

And speaking of vacations, I will be leaving for my annual beach vacation on Cape Cod tomorrow morning! So rather than sitting here thinking of insightful or entertaining things to tell you, I have to go pack

See you at shul (when I come back),
Steve Teitel
